STOMACHS ON STILTS.

The man who puts on stilts does not increase his actual stature. He only feels tailer. Stimulants are the stilts of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

The need of the man whose stomach is "weak" is not stimulation but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It contains no alcohol or whisky. It curse the weak, foul stomach with its attendant bad smelling breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and kindred symptoms.

tite and kindred symptoms.

"In the year 1889 I had an attack of indigestion and got so bad that my home doctor said he could not do me any good." writes Mr. 6.
Trent, of Gordonville.
Texas. "I wrote to you and you advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, so I bought six bottles, and when I commenced using it I was so weak could hardly walk about the house. By the time I had used one bottle my stomach and bowels commenced and heal. There were strips bowels commenced to heal. There were strips of the lining of my stomach or bowels (I don't know which as large as a man's two flugers passed and I had a good deal of misery in my stomach and bowels, and also in the rectum especially. I could not eat anything without having much distress afterward, but by the time I had taken eight bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery I was sound and well, and could eat anything I be leased without suffering in the least. Could also do as much work in a day as a lever could. I have not suffered from the trouble sinces, and it was four years ego that I was so slck."

TOLSTOI'S WARNING.

Count Tolstoi's son Leo, in an article upon Great Britain's constant desire to night, by one familiar with the case. embarrass Russia, declares Great Britain is preparing her own grave and hasten-ing her own cod if she forces war with Russia, "as France, Germany and Italy are bound to realize that their interests lie with Russia's."

Regarding the peace talk abroad, M. Souvorin, editor of the St. Petersburg Novoe Vremya, in a signed editoral in that paper yesterday, passionately de-clares that the voice of the nation should give an answer in order that the world might understand once and for all Russia's position. The Emperor, he adds, should consult with representatives of the land as his predecessors did before the days of Ivan the Terrible.

While papers abroad now say that peace could be concluded without dishonor, if peace were made they would declare it disgraceful. What the people want he (II. Souvorin) cannot affirm, but the idea of ending the war at this uncture is abhorrent to him and, he believes, to the Russian people.

If the inscriptions on the banners of demonstrators and the action of some of the zemstvos in favor of peace represented the voice of the nation it would It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair code to the sea, and the creation of a yellow peril in Asia which would threatyellow peril in Asia which would threat-en civilization and mean Russia's retirement into her Muscovite shell and the ment into her Muscovite shell and the disappearance from the stage of this great power. The army, M. Souvorin further says, holds the honor and fate of Russia in its hands. M. Souvorin then reviews sorrowfully, the record of bitter humiliations suffered thus far and the Sens 10c. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren street, New York.

Despite the different conceptions of what is required, Prince Hikoff expresses the firm conviction that the reform promised in the imperial manitesto opens a wide horizon by extending the importance of the zemstvos and municipal and social institutions, thus meeting the present requirements. "I know that many people believe we need a constitution," the Minister continned, "but to my mind this is premature. The conditions are not ripe. It certainly would be a mistake to borrow a constitution from abroad at present. A long residence in constitutional countries has convinced me that they do DIES. not everywhere respond to the requirements of the country, and especially that a constitution would not meet the conditions in Russia, where the people are in various stages of development, and the vast majority without even elementary

The Baltic Fleet.

The London Times insurance correspondent writes as follows:

"Arrangements for coaling and supplying the Baltic fleet, which I have been able to indicate from time to time, have so far proved a trustworthy advance guide to its movements. These arrangements enabled me to give several weeks ago Diego Suarez, Madagascar, as the concentration point of the two divisions which took the Cape route and the Suez canal. Some significance now attaches to the fact that there is no pregent evi dence of supplies being arranged for points beyond Diego Suarez. There were several charters for coal and provision steamers, but these have been cancelled. The most significant of all is the cancellation of two very large shiploads of arms and ammunition from Libau to the East Indian archipelago and Confederacy, From 1861

A new presentment against Bishop Talbot, of the Central Pennsylvania Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church, is now being prepared by attorneys in Philadelphia. The work is being hastened and it is believed that the necessary papers will be ready to be signed within two weeks.

The presentment will be based chiefly on the charges contained in the first one, which has been withdrawn. It will be signed by a number of person in Bishop Talbot's diocese, and will then be brought to New York, where other signatures will be affixed. It is not known just when the new presentment will be filed, as the intention is to give Bishop Talbot a reasonable time in which to bring his case before the House of Bishops. It he should decide not to take such action, the presentment will be filed, it was stated in New York, last
